A Double Dose of Dickens

ORR Drama Club and Zeiterion Theater to Stage Scrooge

Although the unseasonably warm weather has certainly delayed thoughts of Christmas in New England this year, two local sources of superb dramatic presentations have not forgotten the timeless tale of Christmas ... Past, Present and Future.

Charles Dickens' immortal A Christmas Carol remains the quintessential holiday classic — even more so than Frank Capra's part-homage, It's A Wonderful Life. The story of Ebenezer Scrooge and his learned appreciation for "the true meaning of Christmas" has been remade more times than any other holiday story — probably more than any single piece of literary fiction.

And what's amazing is that it endures the test of time. It has no age boundaries, no geographic limitations, and certainly doesn't limit the imagination of the viewer. In fact, the more you read or see "A Christmas Carol," the more you cull from its simple yet subtle message.

The holiday favorite for many tells the tale of an old miser, Ebenezer Scrooge, who hunches over his money bags, hoarding his coins for himself. The dreariness of life contrasts with the revelry and charity of others on the street who share the joy of the Christmas spirit with each other. But visits from the ghost of his former business partner, Jacob Marley, and the three spirits of Christmas Past, Present and Future help turn him into a wildly generous man.

That is why it's no surprise that both the Old Rochester Regional High School Drama Club in Mattapoisett and the returning Nebraska Theater Caravan at the Zeiterion Theater in New Bedford are both staging their own versions of the play during the first weekend of December.

The ORR High School Drama Club will present four performances of a one-act musical adaptation of "A Christmas Carol." The performances are scheduled for 8:00 pm on December 1, 2 and 3, with a matinee performance on Saturday, December 3 at 2:00 pm. The performances will be staged in the newly-renovated ORR High School Auditorium under the direction of Paul Sardinha.

Earlier this week, Mr. Sardinha was busy rehearsing his ensemble cast which consists of students from ORR High School, ORR Junior High School, and local elementary schools.

Tickets are $4 for students, $5 for seniors, and $7 for adults. Tickets can be purchased at Seaport Pharmacy in Mattapoisett, The Marion General Store in Marion, and at Lloyd's Market in Rochester. Group rates are available for advance sales of 10 or more tickets. For further information, please call 758-6541.

New Bedford's Zeiterion Theater will also host the Nebraska Theater Caravan's musical production of "A Christmas Carol" on Saturday, December 3, with performances at 2:00 and 7:00 pm. The Nebraska Theater Caravan, which is the touring wing of the Omaha Community Playhouse, has an ensemble of 38 actors, singers and musicians wearing authentic costumes who have performed this classic story throughout North America.

The adaptation is described as a "three-dimensional Christmas card," and retains much of Charles Dickens nineteenth-century dialogue while weaving traditional Christmas carols between the scenes.

Tickets for the Z's presentation of "A Christmas Carol" are $11, $17 and $22, with a senior/student discount of $3. Group rates are also available. Tickets can be purchased at the Zeiterion Theater box office, which is open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 10:00 am - 5:00 pm, and on Saturday from 10:00 am - 3:00 pm. To charge tickets over the phone, call TicketMaster at 508-931-2000. For further information, please call 994-2900.

On the cover: Tiny Tim is hoisted upon the shoulder of a reformed Ebenezer Scrooge in the Nebraska Theater Caravan production of Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol," the be staged at the Zeiterion Theater in New Bedford on Saturday, December 3 at 2:00 and 7:00 pm.

Thanksgiving Turkey

By Kenneth J. Souza

The hot smell of gravy and sweet sugar cane,
Are tell-tale signs that it's here once again.
Although I am one who enjoys a good meal,
I can't help the dread and dismay that I feel.

Oh, sure the big feast and libations are neat,
And watching parades and football — how sweet!
A big scoop of dressing, and holiday pie ...
Some honey glazed ham? Oh, would I!

But sure as the bird remains sliced up and bare,
You soon fall asleep in your favorite chair.
That big glass of egg nog finally made you stop,
And swelled your belly — forcing your shirt to pop.

You twitch semi-conscious while others just stare,
And you slowly slide back, nearly gasping for air.
You've eaten too much, you realize that now,
There's just no excuse to have fed like a cow.

But the Thanksgiving Turkey has won out again,
Although you can try, you just can't win.
You vow by tomorrow you'll be on a strict diet,
But when pumpkin pie is served ... you still try it.

of installing a new gas service and to disturb the surface of 210 Upland Way for the same purposes.

Meetings scheduled throughout the week include:

• Thursday and Friday, November 24 and 25 — Town Hall will be closed in observation of the Thanksgiving Holiday.

• Monday, November 28 at 7:00 — Meeting will be held by the Marion/Mattapoisett/Rochester Housing Co-Op.

• Tuesday, November 29 — Board of Selectmen will hold their regular meeting beginning at 6:30 pm to accommodate the schedule of the Finance Committee. The board will then meet with the Finance Committee at 7:00 pm that same evening.

Safety Officer Paul Magee requested the board to approve the proposed revised parking zone on Baptist Street. Officer Magee, in a previous letter to the board, requested the parking zone be limited to the hours of 6:00 am to 6:00 pm whereas no parking for Baptist Street would be in effect between 6:00 pm and 6:00 am. After speaking with members of the Historical Museum, Officer Magee found that such hours would not meet the parking needs of the Historical Society due to meetings conducted after the 6:00 pm changeover.

Subsequently, Officer Magee has requested the no parking time frame be between 11:00 pm and 7:00 am.

Executive Secretary Carol Adams told the board she had spoken with the Highway Department and reported that they were in agreement with the modification. The board then approved a "No Parking" zone between 11:00 pm and 7:00 am for Baptist Street.

The Council of SEMASS Communities notified the board that they will be holding a meeting on Friday, December 2 at 10:00 am at the SEMASS Administration Building in Rochester. The meeting will discuss the 1995 Recycling Rules and Waste Bans, Potential Change in Law Costs, Clean Environment Fund, and any other business which may properly come before the meeting.

The Executive Office of Transportation and Construction notified the board that on Tuesday, November 29, they will be holding a Public Forum at the New Bedford City Hall. The forum will present the recently-completed Disparity Study Project which concluded that sufficient evidence of discrimination exists to justify the implementation of Minority and Women Business Enterprise programs.

"You and your constituents are encouraged to attend this even and to participate in this opportunity to help shape public policy," the letter read.

Executive Secretary Carol Adams reported that the Shellfish Buttons will be available for sale on December 1 at the Town Hall. The fee for the button and the licence is $20 for town residents. The button must be worn visibly and the license must be present while shellfishing.

The board then signed the all-liquor and partial liquor renewal licenses for 1995.

At 7:30 pm the board opened a public hearing for the transfer of a liquor license. The board met with John Bizzozero for the purposes of transferring an all-alcohol liquor license from J.D.P. might be a good time to consider putting a by-law in place that disallowed the renewal of said licenses if back taxes are not paid, as several establishments owed the town from the previous fiscal year.

At 7:15 pm the board met with a representative number of veterans from the Benjamin D. Cushing Post 2425 VFW to discuss the town's taking over of the stewardship of the Music Hall on Front Street. The Selectmen met with the VFW post back in September to discuss a pending plan whereby the post — which had been given the stewardship of the Music Hall via Town Meeting vote in 1946 — would share their duties with the town in order to facilitate the renovations on the building.

A letter was sent to the VFW two weeks ago stating that the Board of Selectmen felt it necessary to take over the stewardship of the Music Hall at this time, but hoped they could "co-exist" within the historic facility.

"When we met in September, we left this matter unresolved," Chairman Schaefer said. "We now feel the town needs to take over the care and maintenance of the building to open it up for public use."

VFW member Joseph Zora vehemently defended the post's continued custodianship of the Music Hall, stressing that they had been in charge of the facility for 47 years. "I cannot express how disappointed we are with having to give (Music Hall) up after 47 years," he said. "From the very beginning two and a half years ago, I warned the vets that this was going to happen. And now to turn around and take away the authority that was given to us at Town Meeting ... I can't tell you how upset that makes me."

Mr. Zora pointed to the fact that the VFW has never turned away or discouraged anyone from renting or using the town-owned facility, and that the VFW had done a great deal to help maintain the structure over the last four decades.

"We were made the custodians of the Music Hall ... we're no different than the Library Trustees or Historical Museum," he said. "Are we any less capable of taking care of the building than you people? Are we less smarter than you? Then why should the stewardship be taken away from us?"

Mr. Zora then asked the board what the VFW had done wrong to warrant such action. He felt that if Town Meeting had charged the post with the care and maintenance of the building, then the Board of Selectmen had no right to change that fact.

"All we're here tonight to ask is what did we do wrong?" he repeated. "I also think that since we were given stewardship via Town Meeting, then it should be taken away with a vote of Town Meeting. If the people of Marion decide they want us out, then we'll leave tomorrow, no questions asked. But I can't tell you what a slap in the face (your decision) is to us."

Chairman Schaefer said she didn't feel the VFW had done anything wrong and, in fact, the town owed them a great deal for their charitable work in town. However, she felt the renovations on the building would proceed more smoothly and they would get a better response to fund raising efforts if the building were under the control of the town.

"If you want to take over the rental of Music Hall, then go ahead," Mr. Zora said. "We've decided to move out ... but we're going out like a wounded animal. We're not going to give up charitable work in town, but I can tell you this is certainly going to leave a

SELLING A FIXER-UPPER

When a seller decides to market his home as a "Handy-man Special", some hard decisions will have to be made.

The first decision will probably be the choice between fixing the house up or selling it "as-is. " Before that decision can be made, the seller needs to know how much the house is worth in its present condition. The question of fixing it up may be academic. If remodeling was the seller's strong point, the house would not be a "Fixer-Upper" in the first place.

The first step is to get an appraisal as to just how much the property is worth in today's market. The lower end of the market usually has the highest demand. The seller may be surprised at the market value. An estimate can then be made of the cost required to upgrade the house to market standard for a higher selling price.

With this information in hand, the decision can be made -- based on financial facts -- whether it would be more cost effective to improve it or sell "as-is" for less money and leave the work for a willing buyer.

sour taste in our mouths."

VFW member Warren Washburn explained that by co-existing in the building, the post would be wary of the many artifacts and memorabilia they've stored there for so long. By opening up the facility to public use, they would risk losing irreplaceable items. "It would be better for us to consolidate everything at one location and move to the pavilion (on Route 6)," he said.

The board regretfully accepted the VFW's decision to move out of the Music Hall and offered to assist them in any way possible. "If there is a way we can work toward satisfying both our needs, that's what we'd prefer," said Chairman Schaefer. "But if you've decided to move out ... we'll work with you."

The board also suggested setting up a committee with members from both the VFW and Selectman Winters to assist in making the transition in stewardship from VFW to the town. But Mr. Zora didn't think such a collaboration was needed.

"I personally think (the Board of Selectmen) should take over stewardship of the Music Hall right now," he said. "The day we move, we're out of there. The decision has been made and there's nothing more that can be done."

Most of the VFW Post 2425 members were silent while a few representatives spoke their piece. Many nodded in agreement with Mr. Zora's comments as he questioned the motivation of the board's decision.

"If we've done nothing wrong and we've carried out the edict of the town, then why the hell did you write this letter to us?" he asked. "We love this town ... but we've found out through you that some of the town doesn't love us."

At 8:15 pm the board met with members of the Open Space Plan Committee and Planning Board to discuss a future Open Space Plan for the Town of Marion. Chairman Schaefer noted that in light of last week's concern over a large development on Point Road, it was an appropriate time to forge ahead with their plan.

"It was obvious last week that residents are certainly interested in our Open Space plans," she said. "I think we can consider this our wake up call."

Planning Board member Jay Crowley agreed, and noted that the Planning Board and Open Space

Plan Committee have been working hand in hand to prepare a comprehensive Open Space Plan for the next Annual Town Meeting.

"The Open Space Committee has issued a questionnaire and is waiting for responses," she said. "I think everyone agrees that our open space needs to be protected, and that's pretty much where the Planning Board stands."

Planning Board member Bob Bennett said he was surprised that the outcry has only been of late, as the potential hazards of over-development have been around for some time. "That suggests to me there is a lack of communication between the various town boards," he said. "The most important thing we need to know is what do the (residents) want to do?"

Although everyone agreed it was worth forging ahead, Mr. Pickles cautioned that such a plan should not advocate the purchasing of such land in order to stop a potential development. "I don't think the town, or the Planning Board, or the Open Space Committee should be in the business of purchasing land before a developer does," Mr. Pickles said. "But if a certain parcel of land which has been deemed valuable to maintaining open space is available, the town should look toward making the purchase through a debt override."

The Open Space Committee agreed to work toward having a plan ready for the Annual Town Meeting in the spring and also noted it would continue working with the Board of Selectmen and Planning Board to achieve this goal.

There being no further matters to come before the board, they unanimously voted to adjourn for the evening at 9:20 pm.

Rochester Selectmen's Meeting

November 21, 1994

A regular meeting of the Rochester Board of Selectmen was called to order on Monday, November 21 at 7:00 pm by Chairman David L. Hughes. Also present were Selectman Lorraine Roy Hawkes, Selectman Michael Murphy, and Administrative Secretary Shirley A. Ferreira.

After approving the minutes of the November 14 meeting with some additions from Selectman Hawkes, the board met with Dr. Susan Peterson and representatives of the Coalition for Buzzards Bay, the Cape Cod Conservation Trust, and the Plymouth County Wetlands Trust (PCWT) to discuss placing an approximate 100-acre parcel of land owned by Dr. Peterson and her husband, John Teal, under a conservation restriction for agricultural purposes.

Having met previously with the board last month, Ms. Peterson explained that she wanted to donate the parcel to the PCWT which would retain the property for agricultural use and provide the town with a portion of open space which could not be developed for any other purpose. The Board of Selectman, however, had requested advice both from the Board of Assessors and Town Counsel to ensure that the transaction was carried out appropriately.

"We haven't been able to render a decision at this time," said Chairman Hughes. "We're still waiting for a response from legal counsel before we give you our blessing."

"Right now, Rochester has quite a bit of land under a conservation restriction," Dr. Peterson said. "This is a new thing ... whereby we are giving away the development rights but would still continue to own the land. The restriction would remain with the property in perpetuity, however."

Dr. Peterson and her husband would retain ownership of the parcel if placed under the Chapter 184 restriction, and they would thereby be assessed at a lower tax rate in return. The property would remain under the auspices of the PCWT, which would ensure it be used only for agricultural purposes.

But the board still had some questions and concerns about readily approving the deal. "I understand that under Chapter 61 and 61A, they would pay less taxes than other people," said Chairman Hughes. "But what if a new (land owner) comes in with a parcel and they want to be placed under the same restriction? I think it's a good idea, don't get me wrong. But if we approve your property tonight, are we setting a precedent for future parcels in town?"

Mark Robinson of the Cape Cod Conservation Trust noted that the Board of Selectmen had to view each parcel as a separate entity and wouldn't be setting a precedent with this one. "The Selectmen are required to approve each individual request based on its own merit," he said. "It's left up to their discretion."

Lastly, the board was concerned that without a tax assessment policy in place for property placed under Chapter 61, 61A and 61B — all of which govern land use — they might be setting another precedent in determining the value of such land.

Chairman Hughes also asked Dr. Peterson if they've met all the time limits within which to file for the conservation restriction, seeing as they only first came to the board last month. "There are really no waiting periods under this restriction," noted Mr. Robinson. "Essentially this is a contract between the land owner and the PCWT.

All that's needed is the approval of the Board of Selectmen to proceed."

But the board still felt it was wise to wait to hear from Town Counsel before giving final approval to the transaction. "I just want to make sure that if we agree to this, that everything is done right," said Chairman Hughes. "Again, I think it's a good idea, but I just want to make sure we don't get ourselves in trouble."

Chairman Hughes agreed to meet with Dr. Peterson again during the board's December 5 meeting, at which time he hopes to be able to render a final decision in the matter. "I know that once we receive a response from Town Counsel, I'll be ready to make a decision," he said.

At 7:40 pm the board met with the Board of Assessors for a hearing to set the town tax rate for fiscal year 1994-1995. The Assessors noted that having just completed their evaluations that morning, that had to send their information to the state Department of Revenue, and would like to continue the hearing for one week. As the Board of Selectmen are not meeting next week, they unanimously voted to continue the hearing to Monday, December 5 at 7:00 pm.

At 8:00 pm the board met with Fire Chief Joseph "Duffy" Clapp regarding delinquent bills and his weekly schedule. Chairman Hughes noted that Town Accountant Claudette Coutu had advised them that several bills were being paid late, hence incurring late fees for the town. The board asked Chief Clapp why there was a delay in paying the bills.

"Well, I'd like to get this straight once and for all," agreed Chief Clapp. "I was told that I would be allowed 20 hours a week working for the town. That's just not enough time to get everything done ... and, to be honest, my livelihood comes first."

But the board noted that Chief Clapp should have a set schedule of when he is available to do town work — at his own choosing — so that he isn't "on call" 24 hours a day, seven days a week. "I don't care how you work it, but you decide if you're going to work two eight-hour days, just let people know that that's when you'll be available," said Chairman Hughes. "If you don't want to work the hours, let us know and we'll get someone to work them."

Chief Clapp agreed with Chairman Hughes on setting certain time aside for town work, but he also stressed that the time has come to consider hiring a full time Fire Chief for the town. "For nineteen years the job has worked out just fine," he said. "Now you realize that I'm the only town employee that's not on full time ... and it's coming back on me. We've really reached a point where Rochester needs to make (the Fire Chief) a full time position."

Having previously submitted information on how neighboring towns work with a full time position and what costs are involved, Chief Clapp stressed that the town really needs to consider this in the near future. "I've already submitted that information to you and, frankly I can't afford to keep trying to please most of the people most of the time," he said. "We have to be realistic about the rate of pay I'm making when compared to other town officials."

Starting the first week of December, the board and Chief Clapp agreed that he will be available to work for the town on every Tuesday and Thursday (days) and Wednesday (evenings). Chief Clapp also advised the board that the time has come to consider hiring more Emergency Medical Technicians (EMT's) for the town, as they only have about six on the payroll — and only half of Selectman Hawkes advised Chief Clapp to prepare actual figures on what it would cost to hire full time EMT's for the town and include that with the budget for the next fiscal year. "Then we'll leave it for Town Meeting to decide," she said.

Under other business for the week, the board:

• Decided to keep both the town's ambulance run billing and police detail billing in-house with Administrative Secretary Shirley Ferreira until an outside agency could be hired at a later date.

• Signed and approved an application to the COPS FAST program, which could provide the town with a grant to insure each town police officer up to $75,000.

Under the direction of Mr. Peter West, the 80-member regional chorus will present two major works, as well as shorter Christmas pieces in English, Latin and French. The two major works, with orchestral accompaniment, will be Haydn's Missa Brevis (The Youth Mass), and Pergolesi's Magnificat.

Are you among the 3 out of 4 women who put themselves at risk?

Statistics show that three quarters of women who should get screening mammograms don't. Thousands of area women are not taking advantage of the single most effective means we have for reducing the deadly toll of breast cancer. Tobey Hospital's Breast Health Center urges you to follow these mammography recommendations of the American Cancer Society.

- Get a baseline mammogram between the ages of 35 and 40.
- Get an annual or bi-annual mammogram between the ages of 40 and 50.
- Get a screening mammogram every year after age 50.

Tobey Hospital's Breast Health Center offers area women accredited mammography and a wide range of other services that help promote and maintain breast health. Call the Breast Health Center at 295-0880, extension 339. Self referrals welcome.

Free mammograms are available for women without health insurance.

The creation of the task force is a timely event because of the publication by the Massachusetts Software Council of The Switched On Classroom, a technology plan for public schools in Massachusetts, and the publication from the Office of the Secretary of Education, Piedad Robertson, of Mass Ed Online.

The goal of the group is to develop a technology action plan that will guide our efforts to prepare our students for the 21st century. On October 20, a subgroup of the task force, the Technology Team, attended a technology conference held in Worcester, MA and spent the day on the initial development of a plan. Those attending were Joan M. Walsh, Anne Silva, Andrew Santos, Daniel White, Lucille Morris, and Robert Cummings. Since that time, a subcommittee composed of Robert Cummings, Anne Silva, and Lucille Morris has developed a draft of the Technology Planning Committee Vision Statement, which was unanimously adopted by the task force at their meeting on November 7. That draft vision statement will be disseminated for input to selectmen, finance committees, parent groups, students, teachers, tri-town councils on aging, school councils, the Marion Local one's name which would sponsor the spaying or neutering of a homeless cat. By so doing, you can prevent the suffering and starvation of countless animals.

The second offer is an adoption certificate which entitles the bearer to adopt a cat or kitten of their choice, and is redeemable at any time. All Animal Umbrella adult cats are spayed or neutered, and vaccinated. They always have many to choose from and their lists of adoptees can now be found in a newsletter titled "The Scratching Post," which is available at local newsstands or through this weekly article in The Wanderer.

The featured adult cat offering this week is an abandoned calico which is very sweet and desperately needs a home before the cold winter days are upon us. She has the tortoise shell coloring and irresistible green eyes.

Other offerings this week include: three calicos (one long-haired with double paws, two short-haired about 12 weeks old); several black and white combos and a solid black short-haired male; two male siblings (one all black, and one black and white).

If you'd like to find out more about these offerings or any of the latest animals up for adoption, please call one of the local Animal Umbrella representatives:

- Diane at 997-4037
- Priscilla at 758-2896.

Available from a private pet owner this week: two tabby kittens who were found abandoned in a yard in Mattapoisett. The brother and sister pair are approximately 9 to 12 weeks old, and are cute and very affectionate. They are litterbox-trained and clean. Please call 758-9362 if you are interested ... the people they are staying with cannot keep them.

The Wanderer would like to remind private pet owners that they can use this free space to find a new home for pets they may have to part with due to a change of living arrangements, new babies, or the like. We'll also gladly help you locate any missing pets in Marion, Mattapoisett or Rochester.

Simply write up a full description of the animal and drop it off at our office (55 County Road, Route 6), or mail it to P.O. Box 102, Mattapoisett, MA 02739. Please note: this is only for those who are giving pets away. Any trades or sales must be placed as a paid advertisement.

A powerful prayer to the Holy Spirit -
Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, who light all roads so I can attain my goals, you who give me the divine gifts to forgive and forget all evil against me, in this short prayer, to thank you for all things and confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you, even in spite of all material illusions. I wish to be with you in eternal glory, thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer for three consecutive days. After three days, the favor requested will be granted, even if it may appear difficult. This prayer must be published immediately after the favor is granted without mentioning the favor. Only your initials shall appear at the bottom. J.M.H

The production focuses on a group of young heroes from both fact and fiction, through stories, fables, myths and poetry. The performance will be spoken orally and signed. By the end of the show the audience will have seen a beautiful visual language and been shown that there is a "little hero" in everyone.

All morning Kindergarten students are welcome to attend this performance with a parent. There is an audience limit to the program and we ask that parents do not bring any additional children to view this performance. We hope everyone will enjoy this unique program. Taino at Old Hammondtown

Through the Marge Ghilarducci Agency, the Mattapoisett PTA is pleased to bring Taino to Old Hammondtown School on Monday, December 5 at 9:30 am. This performance will be for Grades 4 - 6.

Taino presents a multi-cultural program of music and story through rhythms and songs from the Caribbean in celebration of the holiday season. Through music, and the introduction and explanation of various instruments which are played, they create an exciting and stimulating performance.

We hope that the students will enjoy this program. Parents are welcome to attend this performance, but we ask that you not bring young children because the program may be too advanced for them.

PTA Meeting

Please join the Mattapoisett PTA at Center School for their next meeting on Tuesday, December 6 at 7:00 pm.

The Friends of the Elderly

SHARE Registration

The next SHARE Registration Day will be December 2 between 11:00 am and 1:00 pm at the Congregational Church. This is so that you may have your package for Christmas. It will be distributed on December 17. The "Friends" realize that this is early again, and financing may be a problem, but as long as Jean receives the money by December 7, you can place your order.

The cost of the package is $14.50, not $13.50 as was previously reported. All that is needed is two hours of any kind of community work (baby sitting, driving someone to the doctor or for groceries) within the month for which you will receive approximately $35 worth of meats, fresh fruit, and vegetables. There are no other guidelines. If you eat, you qualify.

Walking Club

Jean will no longer be greeting walkers at the St. Anthony Church parking lot. However, this does not mean that the Walking Club is over. Anyone wishing to can go on meeting on Tuesday at 11:00 am.
